

Meeting of Expatriate Sri Lankans with H.E. the President in Colombo

In his Address to the Nation in the immediate aftermath of the country's liberation from terrorism, and also during the Sixty First Independence Day address, H.E. Mahinda Rajapaksa, President of Sri Lanka stated that an opportunity has been created for all Sri Lankans who left the country due to terrorist atrocities to contribute generously for the future development of their motherland. H.E. the President is pleased that the response in the past weeks from Sri Lankans living overseas has been tremendously positive.

As one of the initiatives in this regard, H.E. the President wishes to invite Sri Lankan expatriates to the motherland and address them at a meeting on November 14, 2009 at the Temple Trees. On the following day, November 15, 2009, the Sri Lankan expatriates will be provided an opportunity to meet and discuss with representatives from banking, financial, investment and tourism industries as well as other state institutions at the BMICH.

Those who wish to participate, please contact Mr. Kapila Fonseka, First Secretary (Tel : 0207 262 1841 – Ext : 238) or Mr. Prasanna Gamage, Counsellor (Tel : 0207 262 1841 - Ext : 240) or by email – mail@slhc-london.co.uk
